Subject: Flag Lowered to Half-Mast

Please note that our flag has been lowered to half-mast to honour Jamie Bramburger, Interim Dean at Algonquin College and a friend to many of us at PRH. Jamie passed away suddenly on March 11th.

Jamie was not only a cherished community partner, but also a model ambassador for our community; committed in every way to its health, well-being, and its people. His dedication touched the lives of many, and his absence will be deeply felt by all who knew him.

Jamie was a true advocate for our hospital and quality health care, consistently encouraging his students to join our team and supporting physician recruitment efforts in a multitude of ways over the years. Jamie's legacy will continue to inspire us all.

As many members of our hospital family have a close affiliation with Algonquin College, we extend our heartfelt condolences to his family, friends, and colleagues during this difficult time. Jamie's memory will forever be cherished, and his impact on our community will be long-lasting.
